ABOUT THE AUTHORS

Gerald J. Fitzpatrick is an Associate Professor of Politics at Ursinus College. He has publications in the areas of public law and American political thought.

Frauke Schnell, an Assistant Professor at West Chester University, teaches courses on American government, research methods, and public opinion. Her research interests include the relationship between values and political and social attitudes, women and politics, generational differences in value priorities, and the media's effects on public opinion.

Francis Moran III received his Ph.D. in political science from New York University. He has published articles on Rousseau and the role of nature in his political thought, and he has research interests in biopolitics and eighteenth century thought. He is currently an adjunct professor in political science at Jersey City State College in Jersey City, NJ.

Marianne Githens is a Professor of politics at Goucher College and has published widely in the area of women and politics. Her most recent work has focused on the role of women in the European Parliament.

Stephanie L. Bressler is an Assistant Professor of political science at King's College in Wilkes-Barre, PA. Her teaching interests lie in the areas of public administration, public policy, and women and politics, and she is currently involved in an oral history of Latina migrant mothers in Pennsylvania.

PENNSYLVANIA POLITICAL SCIENCE ASSOCIATION
DEPARTMENTAL MEMBERSHIP FORM

Commemorating its Fiftieth Anniversary, PPSA established this new category of membership. For a most reasonable charge, on a single form, an entire department can now join PPSA. Membership includes, for each member of your department whom you list, the full benefits of individual PPSA membership, including:

- * personal copies of COMMONWEALTH
- * the new Pennsylvania Political Scientist (our expanded Newsletter)
- * advance Call for Papers for the Annual Meeting

Departmental Membership annual dues, depending on highest degree granted in Political Science on your campus:

* Doctoral-granting schools	$100.00
* Masters-granting schools	75.00
* Bachelors-granting schools	50.00
* Two-year campuses	25.00

To enroll prior to the Annual Meeting, mail by April 1 to:

PPSA Treasurer, Dr. Donald Buzinkai
King's College, Wilkes-Barre, PA 18711.

Please list current faculty members in your department who are to receive all mailings on a separate (letterhead) page, alphabetically, with academic rank next to each name.

PENNSYLVANIA POLITICAL SCIENCE ASSOCIATION
INDIVIDUAL MEMBERSHIP and LIBRARY
SUBSCRIPTION FORM

To Individual Members: Remember, when you join the Pennsylvania Political Science Association, the oldest state political science association in the United States, membership includes COMMONWEALTH: A JOURNAL OF POLITICAL SCIENCE.

If you will not be able to attend the meeting this year and want to maintain your individual membership (enabling you to receive the next issue of COMMONWEALTH, the new Pennsylvania Political Scientist and all other mailings), please complete the form below and mail it in, postmarked before April 1.

Note: If your department has enrolled as a Departmental Member, you are already a member and need not personally enroll or pay additional dues to receive all benefits of membership. In addition, as long as your department continues as a Departmental Member, it will not be necessary for you to remember to renew each year in order to continue to support PPSA and receive all benefits. If your department has not yet enrolled, PPSA encourages you to share the Departmental Membership Form in this issue with your Chairperson.
